Extracts from Section 11 (ELECTION OF COMMITTEE MEMBERS) of the Constitution of Hermanus Ratepayers Association:

- a. Committee members are elected at an AGM to serve for two years on the Committee. [SEP]
- b. Retiring members, otherwise qualified, may offer themselves for re-election for a further [SEP] term of two years. [SEP]
- c. Candidates for election to the Committee must be nominated in writing, signed by a [SEP] proposer and a seconder. Candidates must accept nomination in writing. The written nominations with the acceptance are to be lodged with the Secretary ten days before the date of the AGM. [SEP]
- d. No Councilor or employee of the Local Authority may be appointed or elected to the Committee. [SEP]
- e. If more nominations are submitted than existing vacancies, an election shall be held by ballot. [SEP]
- f. A committee member, who by reason of having submitted or been awarded a tender for consulting with, or contracting to the municipality, receives or expects to receive some benefit or remuneration from the municipality (except for Ward Committee reimbursements), shall notify the committee of such conflict of interest and shall resign from the committee. When the conflict of interest situation no longer exists, the committee, on receiving notification, may at its discretion co-opt the member back on to the committee.
